Professor R. Toews,

Go Home, Ont.

My dear Professor Toews:

I laid before the Board of Governors yesterday afternoon your letter stating that you would be unable to take work for the present term and asking that your place be supplied at your expense. I regret very much that your health has not improved. I had heard, however, before that you were not likely to be able to come back for the winter, and as I did not hear from you yourself it was necessary to make arrangement's for the winter's work, and we have secured a gentleman who will take your work for the winter for one thousand dollars. I hope that he will be satisfactory. I do not think that we could have got the work done unless we had engaged him for both the terms. With kind regards, and the hope that you will soon be very much better,

I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

Dear Mr. President:-

Accept my heartiest thanks for your kind letter and for the way you have arranged for a substitute.
I am very glad you have engaged a man for the whole academic year; for although I intended to resume my work at the University at the beginning of the next term, I prefer the arrangement you have made, seeing that it will give me more time to recuperate.

Thanking you once more
I remain

Yours very faithfully
P. Pearce.

Dear Mrs. Toews:

On account of the illness of Dr. Toews I am writing this letter to you. It has been reported to me for some time from a great many sources that you take in public a strong pro-German attitude. It was again mentioned to me yesterday afternoon by a member of the Board of Governors. I feel that it is only right to warn you that if further instances of indiscreet utterance in a time that is fraught with the greatest of difficulties are reported I shall find it extremely difficult to prevent official action from being taken which will be injurious to your husband. At a time when I find myself in a very difficult situation for protecting Germans who are on the staff I do not want to have my position weakened by indiscretions.

Yours sincerely,

President.

not spoken as formerly - I only did speak of the matter to my most intimate friends -

I know my husband would have warned me just as you have done had he been at home, but I have been alone here in Toronto for over six weeks. I suppose you know that my husband has been for many years a nationalized British subject.

Again thanking you very much and very willingly remebering

You kindly warning

I am yours very sincerely

Dear Dr Tolman

I thank you very much for your kind warning which I received this morning in your letter. I have been for some time of late I have been taking a wrong view of the whole matter, and have for some weeks

My dear Professor Toews:

I am now considering the arrangement that it is necessary for us to make for the conduct of our work during the coming year. Among other cases that I have to consider your case stands out as one that occasions me a good deal of anxiety. From reports that I have received I am afraid that your health has not been improving as rapidly as you and we could desire, and if I am to judge from what I am told by your friends there is likelihood that you may not be able to take your work up again next winter.

Have you ever seriously considered whether it would be wise to make application to the Carnegie Foundation to take you off and give you a pension on the ground of impaired health? There are two grounds on which a retiring allowance is granted, one to a teacher on reaching the age of 65. I assume that you could not come under this rule. The second ground is on the basis of 30 years of service as professor or instructor in case of physical disability. The service need not all have been rendered in the one institution. Any other College besides the University of Toronto would probably be accepted. It may be, however, that you could not fulfil the qualifications of either rule. I shall be glad to hear from you and to have a frank expression of your own mind in the matter. With kind regards,

I am, Yours sincerely,
